How CCEL Supports Faculty

At the Centre for Community Engaged Learning (CCEL) our role is to provide expertise and resources to support faculty in the following critical areas:

CURRICULAR INTEGRATION
- Select the best approach and framework
- Develop or modify course learning outcomes
- Develop reflection strategy and learning activities

PARTNERSHIP DEVELOPMENT
- Identify and develop partnerships
- Facilitate communication
- Develop approaches for ongoing collaboration

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT
- Recommend appropriate scope and scale
- Develop specific links to learning outcomes
- Develop templates, tools and resources

COURSE DELIVERY
- Develop and deliver orientations
- Develop and deliver customized workshops
- Support with student facing resources

ASSESSMENT
- Develop and integrate assessment/evaluation strategies
- Support and disseminate assessment outcomes

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES
- Workshops on community engaged learning
- Resource Development and Sharing
- 1:1 consultation and collaboration
- Funding for projects and innovations

Centre for Community Engaged Learning
CIRS Building, Room 2131, 2260 West Mall
Vancouver, BC Canada, V6T 1Z4
604 822 1678
cCEL.ubc.ca
community.learning@ubc.ca